

SUPERCHEFS NEWS

Great party held at Surrey City Hall to celebrate SuperChefs 10 Years making a difference!

Special SuperChefs Cookery finds home this summer in Surrey!

We had an outstanding summer of camps at two locations in Surrey School District: Kwantlen Park Secondary and Johnson Heights Secondary. Kwantlen Park hosted Level One camps while Johnson Heights site ran Level One, Two and Special Needs camps, which was a runaway success in its pilot year.

Special SuperChefs Director/ Founder Malia Scholz appeared on Global TV on July 28, 2018 with one of her students Connor Tise.

SuperChefs held our 10 Year Celebration at Surrey City Hall on August 17, 2018. It was a spectacular event featuring honoured guests MasterChef Canadian Champion David Jorge, Olympic and World Champion Patrick Chan, the incredible Fred Garbo (Inflatable Theatre Company), MP's Randeep Sarai & Ken Hardie as well as many of our community and corporate partners and SuperChefs alumni families and staff, with over 250 people in attendance. SuperChefs announced one of five finalists for Partnership for A Healthier America’s Catalyst for Change Awards

Pictured above are PHA’s finalists for the Catalyst for Change Awards taken at the PHA Symposium in Washington DC May 3, 2018. The PHA Impact Award is presented to a group or an individual who has sparked change at the community level to help build a healthier future. The finalists must demonstrate how the organization is showing measurable impact and outcomes with a focus on populations disproportionately impacted by obesity; collaborating with other organizations in the childhood obesity effort to create a greater impact; or using an innovative approach to address the mission to end childhood obesity.

Finalists include: Brighter Bites, The National Fitness Foundation, OPEN - Online Physical Education Network, SuperChefs, and The Walking Classrooms Institute. See story: <https://www.surreybusiness/surreys-superchefs-nowleader.com/cookery-for-kids-a-finalist-for-good-health-award-in-the-u-s/>

SuperChefs at Fusion Festival

SuperChefs made its annual appearance at Fusion Festival at Holland Park on July 21 & 22nd on the Safeway Culinary Stage. We orchestrated two shows, one entitled All About Eggs in partnership with BC Egg Council with SuperChefs Chef Vanessa Wong demonstrating the perfect omelette alongside BC Egg Farmer Juschka Clarke and Surrey Councillor Mike Starchuk.

Our second show featured Chinese Dumplings with the stars of PBS show Chowtime, father and son team of Herb and Brian Chow, joined by BC Lion running back Jerimiah Johnson. Also appearing both days was our SuperChef Spicer, none other than our Special Needs Director Malia Scholz.

TD Bank Group has been celebrating its customers who are making an impact in their communities by saying thank you in a meaningful way by providing 42 heroes with $5,000 for their organization. In July, during TD's customer appreciation day, Dr. Chang was presented with a $5,000 cheque. All the selected heroes across the country are involved with causes that support The Ready Commitment, TD's new corporate citizenship platform focused on building Financial Security, a more Vibrant Planet, Connected Communities and Better Health.

Federal Support continues for SuperChefs through Canada Student Job Program

SuperChefs was awarded federal grants to make it possible to hire 24 University and High School students this summer and provide them with full time employment to run our summer programs. This amounted to over $120,000 in funds from Service Canada to allow our youth to be involved in worthwhile community public health initiatives.
