

SuperChefs Cookery for Kids Society Report 2013- Highlights

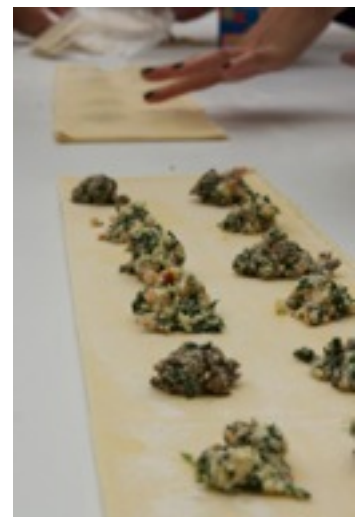

In May 2013, SuperChefs participated in the Canadian Obesity Summit at the Westin Bayshore. Among the delegates were Dr. William Dietz, former Director of Nutrition and Physical Activity Centres for Disease Control and Prevention in Atlanta, and Hasan Hutchinson, Director General of the Office of Nutrition, Health Canada. SuperChefs is in discussions with Public Health Agency to partner and bring the SuperChefs Cookery Program to other communities across Canada.

SuperChefs was featured on a short segment to promote Eat!Vancouver on Joy TV, May 30, 2013. Filmed at the Sheraton Guildford, Executive Chef Mark Griggs was thrilled with the opportunity of working with SuperChefs Kids from Bridgeview and James Ardiel Elementary schools. Alexandra Barone and Emma Germain joined Mikayla Colton, Bobby Cook and Tina Nguyen in creating some tasty dishes in anticipation of the Eat!Vancouver show at BC Place.

Eat!Vancouver featured the SuperChefs Cookery performing 6 shows over the three days of the festival. This is the largest culinary and food show in Canada, and the shows featured ravioli making, turkey sliders, and a special appearance from the World Champion Gelato Maker from the Florence Gelato Championships.

2013 Summer Surrey School District Transitions and Level One/Two Courses

SuperChefs Cookery for Kids held 6 weeks of camps for Surrey School District kids in the Transitions Program and Level One/Two programs. Transitions programs involved kids entering Grade 8, and was held at Guildford Park Secondary School. The Level One and Two programs were held at Johnson Heights Secondary, and as always the kids in both programs learned about nutrition, cooking, basketball and other fun activities.

Fusion Festival 2013

SuperChefs was invited to do cooking demonstrations again at the Surrey Fusion Festival in July, and we invited GM BC Lions Wally Buono to the SuperChefs team. UBC Dental Hygiene students helped promote good oral hygiene at the Festival. We also appeared on Global Morning news with Jill Kropp to discuss the growth of the SuperChefs Cookery for Kids program.

Surrey Kids Conference Nov 2013

SuperChefs participated again in the Surrey Kids Conference, teaching kids the art of pasta making in partnership with Surrey Parks and Recreation, at no cost to the families in Surrey.

SuperChefs goes Global with Eat Well at Westin Hotels and Resorts

In the Fall 2013, SuperChefs partnered with Westin Hotels and Resorts to create a SuperChefs inspired Westin Kids Eat Well healthy kids menu. SuperChefs Advisory Board Team consulted with Westin Divisional Chefs from Europe, South America, Asia-Pacific and North America to create the menu, many of which were inspired from dishes that had been popular and successfully used in the SuperChefs Cookery programs run over the last 5 years. The Kids Eat Well menu will be available in the 200 Westin Hotels Resorts around the world starting April 2014- more to come!

